

Quality Children's Services Madera Child Development Center

Quality Children's Service is a community-based, non-profit organization specifically formed to provide quality services based on the unique needs of children and families. Quality Children's Services strongly believes that regardless of socio economic status, language, or cultural background, all children and families are entitled to quality services.

Date of Rating: May 20, 2024
Site Name	Rating Level
Madera Child Development Center	High Quality ★ ★ ★ ★

Main Program Office:
1205 Sonora St., Madera, CA 93638
Rachel Garcia- (559) 674-1972
For additional site rating information visit the link below:
<https://ca01001244.schoolwires.net/Page/3311>

Highest Quality Plus - Tier 5

- Exceeds licensing regulations
- Consistently implements quality improvement practices
- Uses valid and reliable screening tools (ASQ; DRDP; ECERS; CLASS)
- Regularly performs assessments (program environment and classroom interactions)
- Teachers and program directors with advanced qualifications in child development

High Quality - Tier 4

- Exceeds licensing regulations
- Consistently implements quality improvement practices
- Uses valid and reliable screening tools
- Regularly performs assessments (program environment and classroom interactions)
- Teachers and program directors with degrees in child development

Quality - Tier 3

- Exceeds licensing regulations
- Exceeds basic quality improvement practices
- Uses valid and reliable screening tools
- Regularly performs assessments (program environment and classroom interactions)

Emerging Quality - Tier 2

- Exceeds licensing regulations
- Basic quality improvement practices

Emerging Quality - Tier 1

- Licensed and in good standing

For more information please reference Quality Counts Mader Matrix.